TASKS PERFORMED BY TRUSTEE

The debtor had operated a cement finishing business and at the first meeting of creditors it appeared that there might be preferential transfers and business equipment to be sold. Trustee hired trustee counsel who conducted an investigation and determined that none of the preferential transfers were collectable and that most of debtor's equipment was old and shopworn. Eventually some vehicles were sold by an auctioneer hired by the trustee. Trustee checked claims and assisted counsel in preparing the final report. It is estimated that 6 hours were spent in trustee time in this estate.
